

LETTERS FROM TWO STATES

New London County

CALES FERRY

Norwich Visitors Assist in Closing Entertainment of Summer Course—Teachers for School Year.

An enjoyable programme was rendered at the entertainment, given under the auspices of the Men's Bible class, Saturday evening, at the M. E. church, as the last of the series arranged for the summer season. Rev. C. Wilson Harrison presided. Piano-forte duets were rendered by the Misses Pettigrew of New London, Miss Gladys and Master Fred Beadle of New York, with piano solos by Miss Almada Maynard of Providence, W. A. Beadle of New York, Miss Jennie Perkins of Gales Ferry. Selections were rendered by an orchestra from among the summer residents. Miss Margaretta Wolf of Norwich playing the piano, Raymond Wolf of Norwich the French horn, H. Jerome Mann of New York the violin and Miss Ruth Hamilton of Norwich, Miss Marjorie Mann of Putnam and Charles Rusdon of New York, mandolins.

Recitations were given by Thomas Latham of the Ferry, John D. Libby of New London, Edna Mann of Putnam. The vocal soloists were Miss Grace Chapman of Albany Point, Mrs. Maybelle Woodruff of New York, Frank Edna Maynard of New London, Frank Woodruff of New York, Miss Elsie Woodruff of New London. Vocal duets were given by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woodruff. The accompanists for the evening were Mrs. Eugene LaFontaine, Miss Margaretta Wolf and Miss Maybelle Woodruff. Mrs. Muriel McDonald of New London, Mrs. Cassie S. Hardwick of New London, who secured the entertainment from that city, accompanied the party to the village.

Guest from Passaic.

Frank E. Coleman, superintendent of the Oonite Rubber company of Passaic, N. J. was a week and guest of his brother, Emerson N., and Mrs. Coleman, at their summer home on the bluff.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Latham and daughter, Mrs. Ethelyn, returned to Hartford Monday after a few days' visit with Mr. Latham's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. George Krost and family of Montclair, N. J., were visitors over the week end and Labor day at their summer home here. Mrs. Frost's sister, Mrs. Helen of Cohoes, N. Y., who has occupied the cottage with her family during August, returned home Monday.

Mrs. Harriet Wood, her daughters, Mrs. E. H. Bigelow and Miss Nellie Wood, have returned to Webster, Mass., after a three weeks' stay with Mr. and Mrs. Latham at the Ferry. Mr. and Mrs. Latham returned to their home at the Long Cove section were attendants at the Norwich fair Tuesday.

Term Begins.

Schools opened Tuesday. Miss Grace A. Chapman of Albany Point, who formerly taught in the Standard district, is in charge of the village school, her place having been taken by Miss Ursula Avery of the Unionville district. Thomas Latham resumed his duties on Tuesday morning in the Bridge district.

Personals.

Charles Pierce, Jr., arrived last week from Worcester for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Charles J. Pierce, at Albany Point.

James Martin of Meriden spent the Sabbath and the holiday with his family at their summer home.

Miss Dorothy Dowell of Providence was the guest of Miss Jennie Perkins on Tuesday, leaving Wednesday morning to resume her studies at Northfield seminary.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Wolf and family closed their summer home on the bluff Wednesday and returned to Norwich. The Allen family of Norwich, who have passed the summer at Charles H. Brown's place at Riverview, returned home this week.

Mrs. Delphine Fish has been spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. Brooks, in Hartford.

HAMBURG

Case of Blood Poisoning—Fairs Attract Local Patronage.

Misses Esther Olson and Margery Lord have gone to Northfield to school.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Harding returned from Northfield Sunday.

Miss Hester Warner went to Middletown last Wednesday to see her aunt, Mrs. Caroline Reynolds, who is at the hospital, suffering from blood poisoning in the foot.

Mrs. Ray Harding has been in Norwich the past week visiting friends and attending the fair.

Jewett Tiffany has been the guest of his aunt, Mrs. John Wood, in Hartford, and attended the state fair.

Miss May Harding and sister Tessie have been visiting Mrs. Edward Bushnell in Centerbrook.

Lord and Mrs. Clayton Barrows and Gilbert Miller went on a blue-ship trip the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lester and daughters, Misses Mabel and Helen, returned to Hartford last Monday after visiting relatives.

Arthur Brownell was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Rly over Sunday.

A number of people from this place visited the art exhibit at Old Lyme.

WATERFORD

Late Visitors to the Shore—Howard Family Picnic.

Mrs. Mary A. Littlefield and Mr. and Mrs. Owen C. Williams took an auto spin with Frank Collins of Oklahoma City Sunday to Lyme.

Walter B. Howard of New London attended the Howard family picnic at Pleasure Beach Labor day.

Jacob Mossbrooker of Pleasure Beach is somewhat improved after a severe illness.

Palmer Howard is spending the week with his aunt, Miss Ida Howard, at Pleasure Beach.

Thurston Howard was the guest of his aunt, Mrs. W. L. Driscoll, the past week.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Howard of Jordan are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Theo. F. Howard at East Wallingford, Vt.

Mrs. Frederick Eagar of Harrison's Landing was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bennett, Mallory Hill, Thursday.

Mrs. Eliza Pearce of Westerly was in town Thursday calling on friends.

Miss Johanna Baubler of Boston is the guest of Miss Ida Howard during her vacation.

CAMPBELL'S MILLS

Mrs. Lester Swatz of New Jersey is visiting relatives and friends here.

Dwight Lewis, who has been ill for a long time, is improving.

The cranberry crop in this section is very short.

Jared A. Gallup lost two valuable heifers from eating beans on which lead had been put.

MOHEGAN

There was a morning service Sunday, but no evening service, on account of the storm.

Roger Dolbear is home sick.

Mrs. Dolbear and Mrs. Avery were in New London the last of the week.

Mrs. Hunter was a Norwich visitor Wednesday.

HANOVER

Candidate Expected to Preach Sunday—All Pupils Successful in High School Entrance Examinations—Social Notes.

Rev. H. T. Arnold of Norwich preached in the Congregational church last Sunday morning. In the evening there was no service, owing to the storm.

It is expected a candidate will conduct the services in the Congregational church Sunday. After the evening service there will be a meeting of the Christian Endeavor society.

A delegation from Hanover attended the dedication of St. Mary's church, Baltic, Sunday morning.

All Pupils Succeeded.

All pupils in the town of Sprague who took examinations for high school entrance passed, which speaks well for the work of teachers and supervisor.

Airline-Hospital Today.

Owing to the rain the Airline baseball team was unable to play Lebanon Labor day. Today (Saturday) the Airline play the Hospitals at Airline park, Hanover.

Entertained for New Haven Guests.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bennett entertained at their home Saturday evening in honor of their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Andrews and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Andrews of New Haven. A very enjoyable evening was spent with music as the feature.

Mrs. Harry Andrews and two little daughters, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bennett for several weeks, have returned to New Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Lee and family have returned from spending two weeks at Fishers Island.

Mrs. N. Bingham and son, Edwin Bingham, of Hartford, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. W. Standish.

Mrs. Bishop and Mrs. A. Allen of New York are guests of Mrs. E. W. Bingham.

Mrs. F. G. Way and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, spent the holiday with Hon. and Mrs. Angus Park.

Miss Helen Eadie had as guests last week Miss Lina Grierson and Miss Winifred Grierson of Norwich.

Miss Julia Babbitt is spending a week in Providence.

Mrs. James Babbitt and Mrs. Corey spent the week end in Providence.

William Harrison was the guest for a week at the home of his grandparents in Ware, Mass.

Mrs. Fred Walker of Norwich spent the week end as the guest of Mrs. P. McIntosh.

Mrs. S. Vallette and daughter, Miss Horatia, are visiting relatives in South Norwalk.

Visitors at the Charter Oak fair, Hartford, Thursday, were Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Tinkham, William G. Park and Norman Standish.

Harlan Harrison is spending two weeks in Charlestown, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Delaney spent the week end in Providence.

J. Ions spent the holiday in Worcester.

VOLUNTOWN

Town Ticket Named at Republican Caucus—Accident to Motorcyclist—Lecture on the Civil War.

Friday evening the republican caucus was held in Union hall, Origin Gallup presiding with Howard James acting as clerk. The following delegates were chosen to attend the various conventions: State, John Lewis and George T. Briggs; congressional, Thomas McDonald and A. L. Briggs; senatorial, John N. Lewis and H. James; probate, Charles Anderson and Charles Barber.

The following town officers were also placed in nomination: Assessor, Origin Gallup; board of relief, George T. Briggs; selectmen, Elmer E. Coon and Frederick G. Dawley; collector of town taxes, John E. Kinnie; grand jurors, S. L. Barber and Charles Anderson; constables, George W. Hatch and Geo. W. Macomber; tree warden, Luther Tanner; town school committee, Origin Gallup and E. E. Clark.

Rendered Unconscious.

Saturday forenoon as Moses Tatro was riding his motorcycle at a moderate rate through Church street he collided with a team that was backing out of George Whipple's barn. He was thrown from his wheel and it was thought he was seriously injured, as he was rendered unconscious for several hours. Dr. H. H. Spoor applied restoratives and directed his removal to his home. On Sunday Mr. Tatro was much better and from then on his recovery was rapid.

Briefs and Personals.

Mrs. Ovela Russi and family, Mr. and Mrs. Orliz Boucher and Martial Russi spent the holidays visiting relatives at Phoenix, R. I.

Miss Alice Exley of Occum was a holiday guest at the home of D. O. Groves.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson and son, Morris, spent the week end at Watch Hill and other shore resorts, making the trip by automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Charlier and daughter, Ethel, of Manchester, were calling on friends in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmond St. John of Danielson are spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. Louis LaChapelle.

Frank Ritchotte was a holiday guest at the home of his brother, William Ritchotte.

Misses Mabel and Rebecca Gaunt of Springfield, Mass., are guests of Everett Whipple.

Ponds Are Low.

Owing to the recent dry spell water in the ponds is so low as to necessitate the using of steam power at the local mills.

Monday's storm spoiled Labor's holiday in this town.

Several from this place attended the fair at Norwich.

Tuesday morning an accident happened to one of the street cars at the No. 4 mill, causing a stoppage for several days.

First Friday devotions were held at St. Thomas' church on Friday morning and evening.

Rev. Father William A. Keefe of Plainfield was a caller at the rectory Saturday.

William Strange is visiting relatives at Norwich.

Illustrated Lecture.

Tuesday evening, Rev. William A. Quayle gave a lecture on the civil war in the Baptist church, to a good sized audience. The lecture was illustrated.

NIANTIC

Business Change—Cottagers Depart from Village and Grove.

Walter G. Barker has purchased the business of H. P. Hillier in Main street. Mr. Barker, who spends the summer with his mother at the Mohawk cottage in Pine Grove, is a physician and instructor at the Y. M. C. A. in Frederick, Md. It is understood he will give up his work in Maryland, November 1, and return to Niantic, to engage in his new line of business. During Mr. Barker's absence the store will be in charge of William H. Dorman of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scott and children, who have been occupying the Lloyd cottage in Wells street during the summer, leave the end of the week for New York.

Frank Matthews of Hartford captured a number of the prizes offered at the Labor day exercises held in Pine Grove.

Mrs. J. C. Soden of Chicago is at her cottage in Pine Grove.

Mrs. Charles Belknap of Bridgeport made a short visit to Pine Grove on Monday, looking after her property.

Mrs. A. Strickland of Clinton is the guest of Miss Emma B. Whaley.

Baggage-master Resigns.

James Slate has resigned as baggage-master at the railroad station here which place he has filled during the busy season.

The Lincous and Ebenfelder families left Tuesday for their homes in New London.

Dewey Smith is camping with a party of friends near Judge Bush's residence.

Dwight Luce spent the summer camping on Griswold's island, near South Lyme.

Mrs. Charles McGregor of New Haven is the guest of Mrs. D. A. Crocker in Pine Grove.

Cecil Spicer of New London is in the Grove.

Morris Johnson has purchased an automobile.

Harben J. Crocker is ill at the Comstock place on the Flanders road.

Miss Louise D. Howard employed in Providence is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Howard.

Miss Nan D. Davis has returned from Montreal.

Prof. Sydney V. Kibbe of Boston has taken for a few weeks the cottage on Broadway in Pine Grove, formerly known as the Loomis cottage.

Ivan Conter has been improving the grounds about Temperance chapel.

Miss Katie J. Willey has returned from New Haven and Woodmont.

Mrs. Mary Griswold, Mrs. Frank Harwood and son Percival have returned to Norwich after a visit to Pine Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Beebe left Saturday for their home in Rocky Hill after spending several days in Pine Grove, occupying the Griswold cottage.

Dr. Chipman to Speak.

Monday evening at 7.30 in Temperance chapel, Niantic, Dr. E. C. Chipman of New London will speak under the auspices of the state prohibitionists. His theme will be Intemperance from a Scientific Standpoint.

GLASGO

Teachers and Students Begin School Year—Epworth League Social.

Harry L. Eccleston, who died in Williamstown Sunday, was a favorite with the young people here, while staying with his grandmother, Mrs. Hattie Eccleston.

Mrs. Elton Kinney and daughter, Sadie, of Pendleton Hills were guests of Mrs. W. B. Burdick Wednesday.

Misses Grace and Gladys Thompson leave for their school in Syracuse, N. Y., September 16.

Successful Social.

The E. L. social at the parsonage Friday evening was a success, a good sum being netted.

Floyd Main of North Stonington attended services at the Bethel Sunday morning.

Misses Mary and Minnie Richmond will teach in the place as last year, Sunday, Monday, and Wednesday.

Miss Laura Young was a week end visitor at Milford.

J. G. Bill was a business caller in Norwich Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Tift were recent visitors at Groton Long Point.

Opening of School Year.

Miss Catherine Cary, in the senior, and Miss Winifred Jett in the primary room, commenced school in the eighth district Tuesday. They are boarding with Mrs. Sterry Kinney.

Charles Latham attended the fair in Norwich Tuesday.

Jennie Edmund will attend Norwich Academy the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Wilbur were in Providence last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Dugas were returned visitors at Rocky Point.

Miss Veda Selway, who has been spending several days in Pawtucket, R. I., returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. McGovern and daughters are guests of relatives in New York.

NORTH LYME

Pastor on Vacation—Albert Maynard's Funeral.

Miss Emily Stark and Mrs. W. M. Sisson, Jr., were in Hartford Wednesday.

Rev. and Mrs. Francis Purvis left Tuesday for New York to spend two weeks' vacation. The church will be closed for two Sundays.

Mr. and Mrs. William Purvis of Brooklyn, N. Y., visited at the parsonage last week.

The ladies' sewing circle held a successful meeting with Mrs. W. M. Sisson, Jr., last Thursday.

Funeral of Albert Maynard.

The funeral of Albert Maynard was held in Whitestown district, East Lyme, Tuesday. Mr. Maynard died suddenly of heart failure Saturday evening. He leaves, besides his widow, three daughters, Mrs. Will Rogers of Waterford, Mrs. Warren Rogers and Mrs. Minnie Durkin of this place, and three sons, Byron of Lyme, Warren of Essex and Loren, who lived at home.

A number from this place attended Norwich fair.

John S. Strong was an East Haddam visitor Monday.

LAUREL GLEN

Hale Family Summer Cottage Closed.

A. J. Main of Canochet, R. L., has been visiting his nephew, John Geer, Dr. Hale, and family and a few others, attending the band concert in Westerly Thursday evening.

Attorney Main and family attended the Pendleton Hill Sunday school picnic.

Dr. Hale and family closed their summer cottage here last Sunday and returned to Springfield, Mass.

George Hill is preparing to build an extension on his house.

William Main and family were visitors of George Parlow at Ashaway last Sunday.

Hattie White left Monday for her school near Jewett City.

EAST COLCHESTER

Mrs. Charles Smith of New London is spending a week with relatives here.

Schools open this week. Misses Lillian and Alice Mahoney resume their work in Districts 9 and 10, Lebanon, Miss Helen Jones is to teach in the Seventh district here.

Summer boarders are leaving for their homes in New York.

A heavy frost early in the week killed beans and cut short the melon growth.

Mr. and Mrs. William Avery were in Lebanon Sunday.

Several from here attended the fair in Norwich Wednesday.

The fireman is sure of a warm reception when he goes to work.

SALEM

Ladd Farm Sold to Charles Staples—Members of State Board of Education in Town.

The sacrament of the Lord's supper was observed at the close of the preaching service Sunday.

T. Hunt, ferry and family closed their summer home in town last Friday and returned to their apartments at the Mohican hotel, New London.

Still in the Hospital.

Thomas Murray and son, Gilbert Murray, were in New London Sunday to visit Mrs. Thomas Murray, who is still a patient in Memorial hospital.

The Misses Rogers of New London, who have been spending two weeks at the home of their sister, Mrs. James Lane, returned home last Sunday.

Rev. Dr. Goodchild and wife of Brooklyn, N. Y., who are spending the summer at Hayward's Lake, were in town Sunday, and attended morning service at the Congregational church.

Mrs. W. B. Kingsley and daughter, Miss Minnie Kingsley, spent several days of last week visiting at the home of Mrs. Kingsley's brother, Warren Rogers, at North Lyme.

Miss Bertha Kreitsiek returned to New York Monday, after spending two weeks' vacation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Milner.

Ladd Homestead Sold.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Ladd have sold their farm home to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Staples. Mr. and Mrs. Ladd expect to move to Lefthamlet about the first of October.

C. D. Hine of Hartford and Samuel P. Willard of Colchester were in town Friday.

Gay D. Phillips, pianist at the Orpheum theater, New London, is spending part of his vacation at Crystal Spring farm, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Roy, Albert Bailey of Westerly is taking Mrs. Phillips to the lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith of Wausau, N. Y., and Mr. and Mrs. Luce of Niantic were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Darling last week.

Floyd Bailey is seriously ill.

All roads led to the Fair Grounds in Norwich Wednesday.

Windham County

PLAINFIELD

Salad Supper and Band Concert—Express Agent John Leahy Promoted to Norwich Office.

Miss Ella Barber and Master Alfred Devolve went to Attaugan last week Friday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Armstrong. They spent Saturday at the lake and returned home Sunday afternoon.

Salad Supper.

There was a salad supper in the vestry of the Congregational church Friday evening, August 30, with a band concert on the lawn.

Mrs. Lizzie Davis of Providence has been visiting the family of her sister, Mrs. Nickelson.

Mrs. Nickelson and daughter, Miss Alice, have been recent guests of Mrs. Nickelson's other daughter in Grafton, Mass.

Frank B. Greene is calling on the taxpayers with a paper asking that a part of the state road be built between Edward Mortimer's and the Bradford Hill corner.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Devolve took an enjoyable trip to New London Labor day, stopping over to visit Norwich on the way.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brown and son and Mr. and Mrs. George Cross and three children attended Norwich fair.

Henry Parkhurst moved to Holyoke, Mass., this week.

Going to Norwich.

John Leahy, the express agent, finished work here today (Saturday) and went to Norwich, where he will work for the same company. He has been careful and obliging and will be missed.

Schools began Tuesday with fair attendance. The schools closed on Wednesday at 2 p. m. for a teachers' meeting.

Friends Come for September Visits in Town.

John Gaffney and son Jack have returned to Fair Rockway, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Gustavus Davis of Windsor spent Sunday with Mrs. R. O. Briggs.

Mrs. Adelaide Davis of Hartford is visiting Mrs. Briggs.

Mr. Gove is entertaining his sister, Charles A. Paine of Worcester is visiting his nephew, Allen W. Kenyon.

Miss Jessie Butler of Attleboro sanitarium is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. D. Bloom.

Miss Florence W. Kenyon, a nurse at Cornell seminary, Ithaca, N. Y., is visiting her father, W. S. Kenyon.

Miss Edith Eddy is teaching in district No. 9, and boarding at Allen W. Kenyon's.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Flisk and son Donald of Stafford spent several days at Allen W. Kenyon's this week. Wednesday they attended the Worcester fair, Mr. and Mrs. Kenyon accompanying them.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Lyon of Lynn, Mass., have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Lyon.

NORTH STERLING

Farm Sales—Two Postoffice Given Up—Death from Diphtheria.

Walter Lyon, Telless Benway and Mrs. William T. Spooner have sold their farms recently.

The new rural delivery route from Sterling started Tuesday, September 3. The North Sterling and South Killing postoffices are taken off the map.

M. E. Horton of Waterbury has been visiting George C. Spooner.

Edward Randall and family have returned from three weeks' vacation at Oakland beach.

About 10 people attended the